

3 Interview a member of your family.

Imagine you are a reporter. Interview a member of your family.

Choose 3 or 4 questions to ask.

What is your family member's name? _____

What is your job? _____

Where do you work? _____

How long have you worked at your job? _____

What is the hardest part of your job? _____

What is the best part of your job? _____

Write the answers down as you interview your family member.

Then turn each answer into a sentence. For example, My dad is a firefighter.

Draw a picture of your family member beside your report.

4 Check your interview report.

Use these writing tips:

- ☐ Use 'he' if you are writing about a man.
Use 'she' if you are writing about a woman.
- ☐ Use capital letters at the beginning of sentences.
- ☐ Use full stops at the end of sentences.
- ☐ Check your spellings are correct.

2 Draw and write.

Write a letter to an unknown friend.

Tell the friend your name, where you live and what you like to do.

Draw a picture to go with your letter.

Dear unknown friend,

My name is _____.

I live in _____.

I like to _____.

Your friend,

_____ (your name)

1 Where do you live?

Name: _____

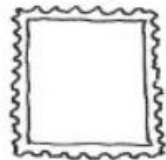

House or apartment number: _____

Street: _____

City or town: _____

Challenge

What is your postal code?
Write your postal code here.

3 A letter to Silvia

Write to Silvia. Answer these questions in your letter.

What is your name?

Where do you live?

How old are you?

Who do you like to play with?

The form is a letter template with a decorative, swirling border. It is divided into two main sections by a vertical line. The top section is for writing the letter and contains the following elements:

- The text "Dear Silvia," followed by seven horizontal lines for writing.
- A speech bubble on the right side that says "Draw a picture of you here." with an arrow pointing to a large rectangular area on the right.

The bottom section is for the signature and contains the following elements:

- The text "Your friend," followed by a horizontal line for a signature.
- A speech bubble on the left side that says "Write your name here." with an arrow pointing to the signature line.
